OPENING THE BUHOOL GATES.

The reasons which make an earlier opening of the schools gates an imperative need are not exigences on the passing hour. They are lasting ones and lose no force by being neglected. It is not a ca e of tiding over a temporacy inconvenience which will disappear of itself

It is wrong to leave these children, many of them of such tender years, waiting impat ently at the school gates to be admitted to sheller and protect on. Every day brings the season of inclement weather nearer, and the more severe he weather the greater is the danger to the delicate physiques of the children exposed

The remedy is simple. Open the gates earlier. The need of this change is
